College Readiness

Developmental Education

The Department of Language and Literature at Texas A&M University-Kingsville is committed to the success of all students and provides developmental education course work to help students achieve college readiness in reading and/or writing. Depending on readiness, measured in part by Texas Success Initiative Assessment (TSIA) scores, students not yet college ready in reading and/or writing are placed in either INRW 0300 Integrated Reading and Writing co-requisite with ENGL 1301 or NCBI 0101 Non-Course Based Integrated Reading and Writing co-requisite with ENGL 1301. Developmental courses in reading and/or writing (INRW 0300 or NCBI 0101) receive a grade of credit/non-credit, which is not calculated into the student's grade point average. Developmental courses do not count as part of a degree program. Academic advisors and the Coordinator of Freshman and Sophomore English within the Department of Language and Literature review each student's academic record to determine appropriate placement.

Special Notations for French and Spanish

1. Students who have successfully completed a 2000- or 3000-level course in the same language with a grade of C or better may not take a less advanced course in the same language for credit.

2. Students who completed their secondary education in an institution where a foreign language was the principal language of instruction cannot enroll in elementary or intermediate courses in that language.

3. A maximum of 12 semester hours of college credit in first or second level for previously completed work in foreign languages may be allowed. Credit may be obtained in one of three ways:
   a. by achieving an acceptable score in the CEEB Advanced Placement Examination (this examination must be taken prior to first registration at Texas A&M University-Kingsville; see "Credit by Advanced Placement Examination [CEEB]" for details);
   b. by local examination (see "Credit by Local Examination" for details); or
   c. by obtaining an acceptable score in the MLS Cooperative Foreign Language Test.

4. All students will be assessed by local examination and/or by the course instructor, in order to determine the track to be followed by each student. Students whose passive or spoken knowledge of Spanish meets specific requirements by local examination, and/or by the evaluation of an instructor, are required to enroll in the following sequence:
