

Geography, Minor

The Department of Physics and Geosciences offers a minor in Geography. The minor in geography should include GEOG 1301, as well as additional GEOG courses to a total of 18 semester hours; at least three of the courses must be advanced hours. Prospective GEOG minors should consult with their advisor and the geoscience faculty to identify courses that will meet their needs. Contact the department for more information.