Policies specify requirements and standards for the use of ITS resources across the university.

Office of Institutional Research and Assessment

Miao Zhuang, Director
College Hall Room 231
361-593-2244.

The Office of Institutional Research (OIR) and Assessment supports institutional planning, policy formulation and decision making through the development and dissemination of accurate and timely data, reports and analysis. The office is committed to providing support for evaluation and assessment activities throughout the university. The office is also responsible for ensuring the timely submission and accuracy of reports to external agencies including the Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS) with the National Center for Education Statistics, the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board, Legislative Budget Board and The Texas A&M University System.

Office of International Studies and Programs

Cousins Hall Room 109
361-593-3558
Study Abroad Program website

The Office of International Studies and Programs (OISP) works toward the internationalization of all aspects of Texas A&M University-Kingsville (TAMUK) by involving students and faculty in international studies and research globally. OISP consists of the following interrelated areas:

1. Study Abroad Programs and International Internships;
2. Student and Faculty Exchange Programs;
3. Collaborative International Research;
4. International Exchange Education Fund (IEEF) Scholarship;
5. International Memorandums of Understanding/Agreements of Cooperation; and
6. Student Foreign Travel.

Study Abroad Programs and International Internships

In fulfillment of the mission of TAMUK, OISP encourages undergraduate and graduate students to spend a summer, a semester or, ideally, an academic year outside the United States. Students can earn credit toward their degrees through international studies. Faculty, staff and community members are also encouraged to participate in these programs. Options, with or without credit, are available for students and non-students in any degree or non-degree program.

Exchange Programs

TAMUK has many exchange agreements with international institutions. Students may earn credit toward their degree programs while faculty can obtain experience that positively impacts their professional careers. International students and faculty can also come to TAMUK through an exchange program and study or teach here on campus. TAMUK currently has exchange agreements with institutions in Latin America, Europe and Asia.

Collaborative International Research

OISP will work with faculty, departments and colleges on identifying, developing and securing international research opportunities world-wide. This includes assisting faculty with Fulbright and other teaching and research awards and locations.

Scholarships

All Texas A&M University-Kingsville full-time students are welcome to apply for a scholarship to facilitate international studies. Scholarships can be used for tuition, fees and travel for an approved TAMUK Study Abroad Program outside the United States. These scholarships are also available to degree-seeking international students and these pay for their tuition and fees here at A&M-Kingsville.

International Memorandums of Understanding/Agreements of Cooperation

OISP is responsible for handling the process and procedure for developing and signing of agreements of cooperation/memorandums of understanding between TAMUK and institutions abroad. The Office collaborates with the President's Office in organizing ceremonies and official visits of international delegations.

Student Foreign Travel

All students traveling internationally on behalf of TAMUK (research project, conferences or organizational activities) with or without a TAMUK employee, are required to register their travel with OISP.

Intensive English Language Training Center

David Gohre, Student Outreach Advisor and Instructor
Cousins Hall Room 219
361-593-2993

The Intensive English Training Center curriculum is focused on the needs and goals of each individual student. The Center provides intensive English training for non-degree and degree-seeking non-native English speaking students who have not reached the university's minimum TOEFL score requirement. The curriculum features high interest topics and focuses on both accuracy and fluency. The multi-skills course syllabi integrate themes, structures, functions, vocabulary and pronunciation. A computerized language lab with access to the World Wide Web provides an unlimited number of resources in Language studies. Students who successfully complete the Intensive English Training Center Exit Portfolio are exempted from the university's TOEFL requirement. Visit English Language Training Center for more information.

Office of Research and Sponsored Programs

Robert J. Diersing, Interim Vice President for Research and Graduate Studies
College Hall Room 150
361-593-3344

The office assists faculty in securing external funds for research. It coordinates campus research activities, acts as a liaison for interdisciplinary research and community outreach programs, provides information on funding sources and proposal and budget development, as well as data on submissions and awards. All proposals for external funds are submitted through the Office of Research and Sponsored Programs.

John E. Conner Museum

Conner Museum Room 105
361-593-2849

The museum, a unit of the College of Arts and Sciences at Texas A&M University-Kingsville, displays exhibits on the history and heritage of South Texas and the natural history of the Tamaulipan Biotic Province. Museum galleries include the Hall of South Texas History, the Caesar Kleberg Hall of Natural History, the Graves Peeler Hall of Horns and the West Gallery which features changing temporary exhibits 5-6 times a year. The museum provides a range of programs for both children and adults as public service outreach for the university in addition to collaborating with other academic departments. The museum also maintains a reference library accessible to the public and study collections accessible to researchers as consistent with its mission as an educational resource.
